Dear Client:

Your privacy is important to us and we are required by law to comply with specific data-sharing regulations. Please read the following privacy policy before moving forward.

We collect nonpublic information (NPI) about you and your household or business from various sources, including:

- Interviews regarding your tax circumstances
- Organizers, or other documents that supply such information as your name, address, telephone number, Social Security Number, number of dependents, income and other tax-related data
- Tax-related documents you provide that are required for processing tax returns, such as Form W-2, 1099R, 1099-INT and 1099-DIV, and stock transactions
- Electronic tools and applications used to collect, store, reconcile and compile such information
- Any other documents you provide to us to assist in the preparation of your tax return

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients, prospective clients or former clients to anyone, except as requested by our clients in writing or as required by law.

We restrict access to personal information concerning you, except to our employees who need such information in order to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your personal information.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, please ask to speak with our President, Donald A. Kannenberg, Jr., or our Secretary, Alan M. Friedman, prior to proceeding.

Thank you,

Friedman, Kannenberg & Company, P.C.

Dear Client:

Friedman, Kannenberg & Company, P.C. is pleased to provide you with the professional services described below. This letter is to confirm our understanding of the terms and objectives of our engagement and the nature and limitations of the services we will provide. We will perform our services in accordance with the Statements on Standards for Tax Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Scope of Engagement: We will prepare your federal and home state income tax returns for the 2021 tax year. We will also prepare any other state income tax returns that you identify and authorize us to prepare. We will prepare your tax returns based on information and representations you provide to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit to us, although we may ask you to clarify some of the information. We will prepare the tax returns solely for filing with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and state and local tax authorities. They are not intended to benefit or influence any third party, either to obtain credit or for any other purpose.

Because our firm is relying on the accuracy and completeness of the information you provide to prepare the tax returns, you agree to indemnify and hold our firm and any of its partners, principals, shareholders, officers, directors, members, employees, agents or assigns, harmless with respect to any and all claims arising from the use of the tax returns for any purpose other than filing with the IRS and state and local tax authorities regardless of the nature of the claim, including the negligence of any party.

Client Responsibilities: We will provide you with an income tax organizer or tax questionnaire to help you gather and document the information we will need to prepare your income tax returns. We ask that you complete the tax organizer/questionnaire and provide us with all original supporting tax information (i.e. Forms W-2, 1099's, etc.), including all worldwide income.

You are responsible for determining your state or local tax filing obligations with any state or local tax authority, including, but not limited to, income, franchise, sales, use, or property taxes. You agree that we have no responsibility to research these obligations or to inform you of them. If upon reading the completed tax organizer, it comes to our attention that you may have an obligation to file additional income tax returns, we will notify you of this. If you ask us to prepare these returns, we will confirm this in a letter and detail the additional charges for this service.

It is your responsibility to inform us if you directly or indirectly hold any interest or signatory authority in any assets located in a foreign country. Based on the information which you provide, this information will be used to calculate any applicable foreign tax credits. We will also use this data to inform you of any additional filing requirements, which may include electronic FinCEN Report 114 (which replaced Form TD F 90-22.1, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR)). Failure to file required forms can result in the imposition of both civil and criminal penalties, which can be significant. These are not tax returns and their preparation is not within the scope of this engagement. If you ask us to prepare these forms, we will confirm this in a separate engagement letter and delineate the additional charges for this service.

You are responsible for complying with any other country's reporting requirements. We have no responsibility to discuss these issues with you. If you have specific questions regarding your tax filing obligations, please contact us to schedule an appointment to discuss your concerns.

Business (Schedule C), Rental (Schedule E) and Farming (Schedule F): You confirm to us that all business income is reported, that your personal expenses are segregated from business expenses and all expenses including, but not limited to, meals, travel, vehicle use, gifts, and related expenses for your business are supported by necessary records required by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). At your request, we are available to answer your questions and advise you on the types of records required.

You are responsible for maintaining adequate documentation to substantiate the accuracy and completeness of your tax returns. You should retain all documents that provide evidence and support for your reported income, credits and deductions on your returns as required under tax law. You are responsible for the adequacy of all such documents. You represent that you have such documentation and can produce it if needed to respond to any audit or inquiry by taxing authorities. You agree to hold us harmless with respect to any additional taxes, penalties, or interest imposed on you by taxing authorities resulting from the disallowance of tax deductions due to inadequate documentation.

The law provides various penalties and interest that may be imposed when taxpayers underestimate their tax liability. You acknowledge that any such understated tax, and any imposed interest and penalties, are your responsibility, and that we have no responsibility in that regard. If you would like information on the amount or circumstances of these penalties, please contact us.

Filing Deadlines and Extensions: The original due date for filing your income tax returns is April 18, 2022. It may become necessary to apply for an extension of time to file your tax returns if there are unresolved tax issues or delays in processing, or if we do not receive all of the necessary information from you on a timely basis. If you are unable to complete and return the tax organizer or questionnaire with all of the required documentation by March 25, 2022, to allow for the timely preparation of your tax returns, you must contact us and request we apply for an extension of the filing deadline on your behalf. Applying for an extension of time to file may extend the time available for a government agency to undertake an audit of your return or may extend the statute of limitations. All taxes owed are due by the original filing due date (April 18, 2022). Additionally, extensions may affect your liability for penalties and interest or compliance with government or other deadlines. We are available to discuss this matter with you at your request at our regular hourly fee should the need arise.

You have final responsibility for your income tax returns. For electronic filing, you (and your spouse) must verify, sign and return to us a completed Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, and if applicable, a state equivalent authorization form before we can file your returns electronically. If you are mailing your income tax return, check them carefully for accuracy before signing and mailing.

CPA Firm Responsibilities: We will prepare your returns based on your filing status (single, married filing jointly, married filing separately, head of household or qualifying widow[er] with dependent child) as reflected in your income tax returns from last year. If your marital status has changed, or if you want to change your filing status, or you have questions about your filing status, please contact us immediately.

We may encounter instances where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the laws and other supportable positions. In those instances, we will outline for you each of the reasonable alternative courses of action, including the risks and consequences of each such alternative. In the end, we will adopt, on your behalf, the alternative which you select after having considered the information provided by us. Without disclosure in the return itself of the specific position taken on a given issue, we must have a reasonable belief that it is more likely than not that the position will be held to be the correct position upon examination by taxing authorities. If we do not have that reasonable belief, we must be satisfied that there is at least a reasonable basis for the position, and in such a case the position must be formally disclosed on Form 8275 or 8275-R, which form would be filed as part of the return. If we do not believe there is a reasonable basis for the position, either the position cannot be taken or we cannot sign the return. In order for us to make these determinations, we must rely on the accuracy and completeness of the relevant information you provide to us, and, in the event we and/or you are assessed penalties due to our reliance on inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information you supplied to us (with or without your knowledge or intent), you will indemnify us, defend us and hold us harmless as to those penalties.

We may deem it necessary to provide you with accounting and bookkeeping assistance solely for the purpose of preparing the income tax returns. We will request your approval before rendering these additional services. Our engagement does not include any procedures designed to discover fraud, theft or other irregularities, should any exist.

Tax planning services are available and, if requested, will be billed to you at our standard hourly rates. During the course of preparing the tax returns identified above, we may bring to your attention certain available tax saving strategies for you to consider as possible means of reducing your income taxes in subsequent tax years. However, we have no responsibility to do so, and will take no action with respect to any such recommendations, as the responsibility for implementation remains with you, the taxpayer.

Examination of Returns: This engagement does not include responding to inquiries by any governmental agency or tax authority. If your tax return is selected for examination or audit, you may request that we assist you in responding to such inquiry. In that event, we would be pleased to discuss providing assistance to you under the terms of a separate engagement letter for that specific purpose. You agree that you will not and are not entitled to rely on any advice unless it is provided in writing.

Fees and Billings: Our fees are based on the time required by the individuals assigned to the engagement, plus direct expenses as incurred. Hourly rates range from $125 to $350 per hour depending on the individual(s) assigned to the engagement. The fee is based upon the complexity of the work to be performed and our professional time to complete the work. Additionally, this fee is dependent on the availability, quality, and completeness of your records. Our invoice is due upon receipt of your tax package.

You agree that you will deliver all records requested by our staff to complete this engagement on a timely basis. In the event your records are not submitted in a timely manner or they are incomplete or unusable, we reserve the right to charge additional fees and expenses for services required to correct any problems or to expedite the preparation of your tax returns. If this occurs, we will contact you to discuss the matter and the anticipated delay in completing our engagement prior to rendering further services.

Revision of Returns: Should a tax return require revision after completion through no fault of Friedman, Kannenberg & Company, P.C., revision fees will apply.

Privacy Policy: In accordance with the Federal Trade Commission rule, Privacy of Consumer Financial Information, we are required to inform you of our policy regarding privacy of client information. Please refer to our website www.fkco.com for complete details of our privacy policy. A copy of our privacy policy will be sent to you upon request.

Joint Return: If the income tax returns we prepare in connection with this engagement are joint returns, and because you will each sign those returns, you are each our client. You each acknowledge that there is no expectation of privacy from the other concerning our services in connection with this engagement, and we are at liberty to share with either of you, without the prior consent of the other, any and all documents and other information concerning the preparation of your returns. We will require, however, that any request for documents or other information be communicated to us in written form. You also acknowledge that unless we are notified otherwise in advance and in writing, we may construe an instruction from either of you to be an instruction on your joint behalf. Absent a contrary written instruction in the future, from either or both of you, we will communicate with either or both of you.

Termination and Other Terms: We reserve the right to withdraw from this engagement without completing the returns if you fail to comply with the terms of this engagement letter. In such case, Friedman, Kannenberg & Company, P.C. will not be responsible for any tax, interest or penalties that the taxing authorities may levy against you for failure to file or for failure to file your returns on a timely basis. If any portion of this agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, said finding shall not operate to invalidate the remainder of the terms set forth in this engagement letter.

Record Retention: Our record retention policy requires us to return all original records and documents that you have given us at the conclusion of the engagement. Your records are the primary backup and support for your tax returns. Our records and files are our property and are not a substitute for your own records. Our firm destroys our engagement files and workpapers after a period of 7 years. Catastrophic events or physical deterioration may result in our firm's records being unavailable before the expiration of the above retention period.

Other Terms: All services performed in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns will be performed in our office located in Farmington, Connecticut. You agree that the courts of the State of Connecticut have jurisdiction over the parties and all disputes between us, and we agree to submit all disputes to the Hartford Superior Court, which is the proper and most convenient venue for resolution. You also agree that the laws of the State of Connecticut shall govern all such disputes.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

In performing our services, we may communicate by facsimile transmission, send data over the Internet, store electronic data via computer software applications hosted remotely on the Internet, or allow access to data through third-party vendors' secured portals or clouds. Electronic data that is confidential to your company may be transmitted or stored using these methods. We may use third-party service providers to store or transmit this data, such as providers of tax return preparation software. In using these data communication and storage methods, our firm employs measures designed to maintain data security. We use reasonable efforts to keep such communications and data access secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards. We require all of our third-party vendors to do the same.

You acknowledge and accept the fact that we have no control over the unauthorized interception or breach of any communications or data once it has been sent or has been subject to unauthorized access, notwithstanding all reasonable security measures employed by us or our third-party vendors. You consent to our use of these electronic devices and applications and submission of confidential client information to third-party service providers during this engagement.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you. Please sign and date this engagement letter and return it to us with your pertinent tax documents and income tax organizer or tax questionnaire to acknowledge your agreement with its terms. It is our policy to initiate services after we receive the signed copy of this engagement letter from you.

Very truly yours,

Friedman, Kannenberg & Company, P.C.

Business Mileage Worksheet

Rules:

Use the following three scenarios to determine how many miles you can deduct. Keep in mind the following statement: in general, commuting to work is not deductible and ALL travel must be supported with documents that show an amount, date, place, and reason for travel—such as bills, invoices, or receipts.

- If you have an office or regular place of business outside your home, you may not deduct miles commuting to and from work. You may, however, deduct mileage driven to a temporary work place and mileage to and from different work locations; i.e. clients’ businesses, onsite work, or other offices; during the day. A temporary work place is a location driven to for less than one year or less than 35 times a year.
- If you have an office in your home that qualifies for a home office deduction, all of your business-related mileage is deductible. A qualifying home office must be your primary place of business.
- If you work out of your home, but do not qualify for the home office deduction, the distance between your home and your first stop and between your last stop and your home are nondeductible commuting miles.

Tools:

The following tools might be of help if you need to reconstruct your mileage: Day planner, calendar, appointment book, Quickbooks printouts, Mapquest or Google Maps.

Sampling:

You cannot deduct amounts that you approximate or estimate; however, if you make routine trips, you may record the exact mileage once and use that mileage for multiple trips. Routine trips must be properly documented.

List:

Besides when routine trips can be supported, the IRS requires a complete daily travel log to support a business mileage deduction. Use the list below and the tools listed above to try to reconstruct your miles. Documentary support needs to be made available for all miles driven.

Electronic Filing

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return .....

Do not electronically file the state return(s) .....

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fees and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.

Would you like to use a randomly generated PIN?
